Day 01 : Delhi to Manali by AC Volvo Bus

Transfer from Delhi to Manali by an AC Volvo Bus - Overnight journey - (540kms one way/approx 15 hours drive/gaining a height of 6,726 feet above sea level)

Welcome onboard a wonderful and one of the most happening destinations - Manali! Today, aboard your AC Volvo bus from a convenient pick-up point (refer 'Notes' below) and depart for Manali by road. The Semi-sleeper Coach offers you a mind-blowing view of the adjacent Himalayan Valleys. Enjoy the scenic beauty of the enchanting Kullu Valley while you drive to Manali.

Day 02 : Arrival at Manali - Half day Local City Tour

Today morning, reach Manali and get transferred to your hotel. Check-In at the hotel and relax. The day is free for leisure activities or to sit back and get acclimatized to the beautiful weather of Manali. In the afternoon, visit the Hadimba Temple, Vashisth Kund, Nehru Kund, Tibetan Monastery and Van Vihar. The Hadimba temple, also known as the Doongri Temple, is a four-tiered pagoda-like wooden temple. It stands in deodar trees and has beautiful carvings on its ornamental door. Dedicated to Hadimba, who is the wife of Bhim, this temple is the venue for an annual fair held during the month of May. Nehru Kund, a natural spring of clean cold water has been named after the late Prime Minister Jawahar Lal Nehru. He would drink water from this spring during his stay in Manali. This spring is believed to be coming from 'Bhrigu Lake'. Vashishta Springs is located across the Beas River, about 3 km away from Manali, at an altitude of 1,982 meters (6,200 feet). These springs are the Natural sulphur hot springs. Enjoy an evening at the mall road (on your own) where you can buy souvenirs and handicrafts (on your own) for your loved ones.
